Your letter of 05/22/2008, specifying a 30-day response time from that date, had not arrived at my P.O. Box by 10 AM on 05/26/2008 (Memorial Day). I picked it up on Wednesday, 05/28/2008 at 11 AM. Your timing, cutting off one week of my response time, was remarkable.

Your required Amendments to the Claims, Numbers 4, A, B, C and E, imply that there is some known status to my Claims which I can identify for responding to the Amendments. However, from the start in 2003, I have never had the privilege of knowing the status of my Claims. Your letter of 12/17/2007 referencing to seven independent claims, was an atrocity. It just demonstrates that I have no hope of knowing where to start and what path to follow; even if I attempted to apply the CFR's that you specify. Therefore, I will continue on my own path in which the Specification reflects three years testing of a prototype, and presently defines 'a' sailboat and one independent claim.

Page one of your letter states that failure to timely respond to your notice will result in Abandonment of the application. If that occurs, put it in writing and send it to my P.O. Box.

I do not intend to abandon my application. Therefore, I specifically request that you maintain the original Title, Application Number and date of my application in the Patent Office data bank.
